WOULD inform the citizens of Louisville and its vicinity, that he has located wille and its vicinity, that he has located himself here permanently, for the purpose of practicing his profession in all its various branches, after the latest and most approved style. Having practiced for the last twenty years in New Orleans, I feel confident of giving satisfaction to every one who may honor me with a call. I would call the particular attention of the public to my mode of filling teeth, which is done in such a manner as to get twice the amount of gold into a cavity, as done in the usual way. I can, therefore, "guarantee" every tooth plugged in such manner to be as good as if never decayed.

Artificial teeth inserted—from one to an entire set—not only for beauty, but also for use, with or without suction, such as the case may require. Teeth extracted with as little pain as possible, and all other operations pertaining to dentistry.

J. J. HIRSOHBUHL, No 529 Main street,

FRANK P. JOHNSTON.

JULY 14, 1858. sent up to that court. Messrs. Ben. and Andrew Monroe, * * * were the Frankfort partners of Judge Wheat while he was a practicing attorney.

Wm. K. Thomas, the jailor of Jefferson county, has become a mighty man in our times. He is mittee and chairman of the jail clique. He was isville, simply because the citizens will not make the last four years. In August, 1854, he was only able to poll 1,565 votes out of 4,076 that were cast for jailor. He had the field against eight other If this is so why does not his name appear? Firm andidates, who divided up the opposition vote so as to to secure his election. There were 2,511 of Wheat is nowhere or in any way found. The otes polled against him, and had these opposition rotes been concentrated upon a single individual any, were turned over to others. Moreover, if astead of being scattered among eight distinct andidates, Thomas would have been beaten 946 Judge Wheat's cases in the Court of Appeals, as otes, which we think is about the Democratic najority in the city.

herefore, in 1854, and it may be well to ask what has made him and his clique so mighty since that | that "thirty years' experience?" me. The question is very easily answered, for he records show the source of his supremacy .et us take a glance at these records, and see if

Mr. Thomas went into office in 1854, when the ailor was allowed thirty-five cents per day for keeping prisoners. It was soon found out that his eminent services to his party were worth more than this compensation would pay him. He did good service for Know Nothingism in the latter part of 1854, the whole of 1855, (that was an enough to satify all previous jailors, was not sufficient to make him as powerful as he must needs be to effect Know Nothing purposes. He was getting $2 45 per week for keeping each prisoner but it was a clear case that if he could get $3 50 his profits would have a margin sufficient to make him a Know Nothing leader-a jail clique

The Legislature of 1855-6 had a Know Nothing najority in both houses. It was, therefore, easy to do what Mr. Thomas and the Know Nothings wanted done. A law was passed in February of that year giving him fifty cents per day for keep ing each prisoner. It is plain that under this law he would make a clear profit of more than $5,000 per year over and above the pay of former jailors, if he could have something like an hundred prisoners constantly on hand. Such a salary might well have been considered ample for the the president of the Know Nothing executive com mittee and the chairman of the jail clique.

The records show that he has made a good thing f this new law. He has made enough money to atisfy any reasonable man. It cannot be considered wonderful that he has grown so powerful, when the sums he has drawn from the public treasury are taken into account. The records of the Jefferson Circuit Court alone, show that he has drawn the following sums in the short

July, 1856						. ,							. $	2,283	00

....$15,038 00 During the same time he has drawn from the city, for keeping the watch house, about $1,833 00. At the same time, Henry C. Thomas, the brother ail, and another guard has drawn about the same sum. The sum total for one year and ten months may, therefore, be set down at $17,910 50. The emaining two months will, no doubt, bring up he sum total to $20,000 in two years, or $10,00 er year. This does not include the keeping of runaway negroes and other perquisites of the of-ice, of which we have no record from which we an make an exhibit. With such a salary bestowed upon their leader t is not wonderful that the jail clique have rapidly risen to power, and that they are making desperate efforts to control the city. The Louisville Journal is ready to advocate all their plans, and the police force of the city to help to carry them out. We think, however, that they have had control of the city long enough, and that the taxpayers who foot the bills necessary to keep them power, are sensible of the necessity of a change. There must be a change if Louisville is o become the great city which nature designed her to be, and the best way to begin that change is to elect Thomas Batman jailor, in the place of W. K. Thomas. Tom. Batman is one of our oldest and best citi

ens. He has never asked an office of the people nd he asks it not now except through the earnest dicitations of his friends. There are hundreds f voters in the city and county who want to onor him for a well-spent private life, and for his military services in defense of his country. He has not sought the office, but the office has ought him; and thus he comes up to the American standard. On the contrary, Mr. Thomas has ought the office not only by all the means usual in getting nominations, but by the unusual means of going as a delegate into the very convention which nominated him. Mr. Batman has, there fore, come nearer to the K. N. test of fitness for office than Mr. Thomas, and he is better entitled to K. N. support. We believe he will get such support, and we know he will get the Democratic

The Appellate Judgeship. The Journal published an article, some days ago laudation of Judge Wheat, and disparagement of Wood, the Democratic candidate for the Court of Appeals. Extravagant, absurdly laudatory, eulogies were pronounced on Wheat in positive terms. The Judge's long experience at the bar was displayed, while Wood, in contrast, was spoken of as a "stripling"—the evident inference intended by this being that Wood was without experience or standing at the bar. In legitimate re tort to this taunt, we replied that Judge Wheat's name had never appeared in the Reports of our Appellate Court, and hence argued that his proessional standing was not so high as his eulogist had claimed. Our article was made the theme of a characteristic comment in yesterday's Journal. which calls for notice.

If Judge Wheat is a man of so much experience and eminence, we naturally ask, why is not his name found in high places of trust and responsi-bility while at the bar? Why is it not found in the reports of our court of last resort? The Journal says: "The custom of publishing the briefs of counsel was begun in 1854. Up to that time the names of attorneys were seldom found in connection with the reports of the cases in the Court of Appeals." This is a bold and strange assertion. Since the spring term of 1823 the fact is directly the reverse of what the Journal states, except as to publishing briefs. Not a case has been reported from that time to the present where the names of counsel representing the parties in the Court of Appeals is not given, unless by accident or oversight. For thirty-five years has been the rule to give the names of counsel in publishing cases. As this period embraces the whole term of professional life claimed for Judge Wheat, we need not go further back. Some other explanation must be found for this hiatus in the record of one so emi nent, and another is offered. Hear the Journal: "Until recently, it was not the practice of members of the bar residing at a distance from Frankfort to attend in person to their cases in the Court of Appeals."

The Journal ought to know that a majority of the cases in the Court of Appeals is submitted on briefs, and that cases are always submitted, if the briefs are in, though counsel are not present, un ss objection is made or delay asked. An appear

"They, (lawyers at a distance, until recently,) had their law partners in Frankfort, who gave their personal attention to whatever business they and attended to his cases in the Appellate Court. We might give, probably, a column of names to show that lawyers, at a distance, have, for more than a quarter of a century, attended to their cases in the Court of Appeals-unless where it was thought best to have a "law partner" elsewhere. The rule is not universal and has admitted exceptions; but we think that an "emi-Judge Wheat, ought, at least, to have had one case in a court in which he aspires to preside. What would be thought of a candidate for Circuit Judge who had never had a case in the Circuit Court? This does not hold as to Justices of the Mr. Thomas has grown rapidly into power in Peace, or Judges of the County Court. But, it is urged that Judge Wheat had his partners who 'attended to his cases in the Appellate Court.' names appear as well as individual ones, but that truth, probably, is that Wheat's cases, if he had Messrs. Ben. and Andrew Monroe attended to his Frankfort partners, Judge Wheat had no such cases till 1840, as Ben. Monroe did not live in The head of the jail clique was not so powerful, Frankfort till about that time, and Andrew Monroe was not then at the bar. What becomes of

> The Journal speaks of Wood's name not an pearing in the Court of Appeals till the 17th volume of Ben. Monroe's reports "was published, about two years ago," and in another place, in its article, fixes the time in 1855. We know that the editor can go back at least four volumes and as many years-we know not how much further or

We did not begin this controversy by any com parison of the merits of Wood and Wheat, but the Journal did. It paraded Wheat's experience at eventful year) and the early part of 1856. He | the bar and on the bench, and sneered at Wood as gave unmistakable signs of being the very man a stripling, tauntingly asking what would have he Know Nothings wanted to manage and direct | been thought in the days of Boyle, Mills, etc., of elepertain persons in the city. But his pay, though vating such an one to such an office. We have merely replied to assaults made, and replied temperately and legitimately. The Journal now assails other lawyers-Democrats of course. This is merely gratuitous and has nothing to do with the question the Journal raised. The assault is equally wanton and harmless.

A great and a free people humbly acknowledging their indebtedness for liberty and prosperity to an over-ruling Providence is, ineed, the most touching and affecting of earthly But here am I remote from churches, and yet not insensible to the sacred influences of the day. The trees, which, in their green gladness, wrestle musically with each passing breeze-the birds vocal with young lips, and the liberties of the "up per deep"-the river which laves the verdure-clad banks-and the blue unfettered sky above, all conspire to remind us of the good heritage which is We know not, in all our pleasant State, a spowhere freedom from the trammels and conventionalism of city life, can be more perfectly enjoyed able landlord, accomplished assistants, the luxucapes, delightful drives, sociable company, and e finest water in the world, necessarily render this a place of resort scarcely equalled in the We have here all that is desirable for a summe retreat. The hotel is very spacious, surrounded by long galleries, and the large sleeping rooms re admirably furnished and ventilated. In the Licking, near by, the angler can find sufficient amusement. The student of natural history may reap, in the mountain gorges, stores of interesting matter for speculation and research. Young overs desirous of private tete a tetes will discover cosy nooks far remote from intrusive eyes. A fine and discourses music daily, on the lawn, and at night in the elegant ball room. The table is supplied with not only the substantials of the land but every delicacy imaginable. For exercises, there is a well managed bowling alley, with billiard tables and swings. Not to be out of the world, we have two daily mails. Stages connect with Maysville and Paris, at the latter place with railroads North and South. So, you see, few watering places possess the decided advantages of the Blue Licks. But what were all these without a landlord t render this a pleasant home? And in this esser tial we are not destitute. Mr. James S. Hutchin son, the proprietor, is just fitted for the post. He is agreeable, active, enterprising, and remarkably attentive to his guests. Besides, he possesses a jewel in his charming lady, who is as attentive and fascinating in the parlor, as she is domestic and useful in the general superintendence of household affairs. Of our old friend, Sam. C. Sayres, of Frankfort, we can not say too many words of praise. Despite his Know Nothingism and he never allows that political heresy to enter into private relations, he is one of the best fellows in the world. Charming in conversation, Ches terfieldian in manners, handsome in appearance and a gay, festive son of Momus in all respects, it is not wonderful that he renders the stay of every one pleasant. There is already collected here a large and agreeable company from all sections of the State and the South. Evidently the palmy days of the Blue Licks are returning under the present efficient management. It was my good fortune to come hither under the most propitious circumstances. Yesterday afternoon we left Georgetown in company with Jose Manuel Garcia were also sought for without being found. LETTER FROM HENRY. [Correspondence of the Louisville Courier.] Franklinton takes a Turn at Incola HENRY COUNTY, KY., July 12, 1858. Editors Louisville Courier: In the Louisville Democrat of the 10th inst., I noticed a letter. signed "Incola," and dated at Pleasureville, July 8th, 1858, in which the writer undertakes to contradict some statements in my letter to you written 30th ult.

The stupidity of "Incola" is so obvious that no one can read my letter of June 30th, and his of the 8th instant, without discovering it. I said nothing about anti-Lecompton Democrats. They were not in my mind at the time of writing-There are not enough of them in Henry county to attract attention. Even the very small per cent. of the Democratic party in Henry which for a time lost sight of principle in their admiration of Douglas, and, like the editor of the Democrat mporarily wandered from the household of faith, have nearly all availed themselves of the benefit of "sober second thought," and now spurn the thing called the "People's party," gladly returning to the old Democratic faith. When I wrote the letter which seems to be distasteful to "Incola," I had in my mind none but that portion of the late Know Nothing order which sanctions and approves the outrage upon Kentucky sentiment, committed by Marshall, Crittenden, and Underwood, in voting against the admission of a slave State into the Union. I did not make the statement at random. That the anti-Lecompton K. N.'s of the county comprise only a minority of the votes in the county, is not disputed by any well-informed person. That this minority has in it the three classes designated in my letter of June 30th, is a well-known fact. I did not say that the three classes comprise the whole of the anti-Lecompton strength of the county. But I did say that some of the anti-Lecomptonites are did say that some of the anti-Lecomptonites are such, because they are opposed to the admission of another slave State—that others are anti-Le ompton because their leaders bid them be so, and that others are anti-Lecompton because the Ad-I now repeat that what I then said is true "In es, to be found in the ranks of the late K. N. or der. I did not say, or intimate, that no one op-posed it for any other reason than the three therein stated. In fact, I could have designated other classes of opponents. For instance, I might have named a class of persons who think they can see a difference between Congressional interfer with the formation of a State Constitution, and Congressional interference with the mode of ratify-ing or adopting a State Constitution. In other words, they say Congress has no right to say what kind of a constitution a State shall make for itself, but has the right to say how such a consti-tution as the State may make shall be adopted. Had I named that class it is not improbable that I would have included "Incola." Now, it is evident that "Incola" "kicked before he was spurred," inless he belongs to one of the three cla true that he is a K. N., and that, as an anti-Lecomptonite, he sees himself described in that letter, I have only to point to himself for the ex-ample he calls for. But if, on the other hand, he is a Democrat, he can, if he chooses, give his own reasons for opposing Lecompton. In the latter event I shall not attempt to "point out one" the characters I have described. of the characters I have described, for vious reasons. My neighbors who do agree with me on the subject of po are generally worthy gentleman, with v I have social relations of the most friendly of acter, and I do not choose to designate them by name in the public prints. I respect them too highly and prize their friendship too much to thus wantonly offend them. I do not believe there is one of the persons of whom I was thinkng, when I wrote my letter of June 30th who would condescend to declare "assertions at open war with the truth," when he knew nothing of the ruth or falsity of the assertions he was contra licting. If I am not mistaken in their character they are all above such an act.

"Incola" is not only incapable of understandng what others write, but he does not compre-nend the language he uses himself. He fancies he is attacked by the correspondent of the Courier and then boasts that he has too much of "the fire and spirit of his great leader, Stephen A. Douglas," to show no fight when thus attacked. It may be that he had imbibed too much of the fiery spirit which Douglas' enemies used to charge him with using too freely, to allow him to understand "Franklinton's" letter. Hence he set should deasing too freel "Franklinton's" Hence, he set about de-

Emancipation sheet, of course it is no business of mine to reply; but, I will say here that whatever may have been the political errors of the Courier when it indiscreetly permitted certain distinguish pation in Kentucky, it is now recognised as being not only a decided pro-slavery paper, but as being the leading Democratic paper in the State. If it were true that the editors of the Courier were Emancipationists in sentiment, (and it is certainly not true as to one of them if true as to either,) ave they no right to change their opinion?

The editor of the Democrat was once a Whig. He changed and became a Democrat; he remained a Democrat till a coalition was formed in Washagton last winter against the Administrati Seward, Crittenden, Douglas, Marshall, and Gid-lings, and for a time he was misled by Douglas. t is true that when he saw the associates he must have in the "Burgoo party" that was form ought refuge again under the old Democratic ag. For one, I never doubted Col. Harney's sinries of the land, ample shade, magnificent landittle strange that everybody who has changed po tical opinions shall have credit for honesty and incerity except the editors of the Courier In conclusion, I have not in any instance drag-ged into the polical columns of a newspaper any scurrilous language towards any candidate. I have seen many letters in the Democrat from this county, during the last six months, which conained statements in regard to the position of the Democratic party on the Kansas question almost wholly at variance with the truth. I don't know cope of my observation, the Democratic party or every one that deserts it and goes to the new People's party, which is simple the Republican ew name.

It was not my intention to make any allusion to the few Democrats who, for a short time and be-fore they could fully investigate the subject, were wrong on this question. Nor did I intend to make any allusion to what I, in common with at east nineteen-twentieths of the Democrats in this county, regard as the error of the Louisville Democrat on the Kansas question. But the coarse and ungentlemanly language of "Incola" made it necessary for me to incidentally notice both.— Unless such language shall be repeated, neither will be again noticed by me. I may, however, notice the same classes of persons to whom I alluded in my first letter. None of them will take exceptions to it, because they frankly avow what I stated of them, and, moreover, the kindest personal relations exist between them and your correspondent as is the case in fact with the goodespondent, as is the case, in fact, with the go eople generally around. FILLIBUSTER WALKER.—We see it stated that the ubiquitous Gen. Wm. Walker has again turned up in New Orleans, where he asserted that Mr. Buchanan, through his Secretary of War, sent an emphassador to him (Gen. Walker) saying that "iff less objection is made or delay asked. An appearance in he would have secured the same no. It ice in the published reports as an appearance in person. If Judge Wheat's services in person could be dispensed with, there is no reason why they could not be given by brief had they been deemed of sufficient consequence. This is the more strange, as everybody knows that the lawyer who has grown up with a case, ceteris paritus, can manage it better than any other. The Journal proceeds:

up in New Orleaus, where he asserted that Mr. Buchanan, through his Secretary of War, sent an embassador to him (Gen. Walker) saying that "if he would forego the Nicaragua enterprise and engage in the service of Mexico, and while in that service do some act, such as tearing down the flag of Spain, rendering a war between Spain and Mexico inevitable, he (Walker) would receive the support of the Administration." Of course, such an assertion is too ridiculous to be entertained for an assertion is too ridiculous to be entertained for a moment.

SENDING A CHALLENGE. - DEFYING THE CHIEF. S. P. Reeder, jr., quite a youth, and another young man, were together presented, the former writing a challenge to the Chief of Police to meet him in mortal combat, and the latter for bearing said challenge. Wm. R. Ray, the Chief of Police, tes-tified that some time yesterday he had arrested certain parties, when Reeder interfered, and went so far as to put his hands upon him, when he knocked him down. Subsequently he received a missive from the young man, challenging him to meet him with deadly weapons, giving him the privilege to name the weapons, time, and place, stating that he, the Chief, had insulted him by a blow and that he heing a small man could recent plow, and that he, being a small man, could resent t in no other way than a resort to deadly wea-cons. The Chief on receiving said challenge treated it with contempt, but on second thought con-cluded to arrest the parties, commencing with the bearer. The parties are young men, and probably were not aware of the enormity of the offense they had committed against the law by sending a challenge. The principal, it was alleged, was drunk at the time—not in his right mind, and not amenable to law for the offense. The Chief had choice of weapons, and as in duty bound, concluded to fight him with the statutes. The penalty for this offense is fine and imprisonment, and disfranchisement for seven years. chisement for seven years. JACK SHEPPARD CAPTURED .-- John Garnett, alia

Jack Sheppard, of New Orleans, is said to be one of the most expert and daring rascals that ever traveled. He escaped from prisons in that city as fast as he was committed to them. He soon became so well known, however, that he thought it prudent to leave, and thus Louisville became a scene of his operations. These, however, have vet been of rather a petty order. About six weeks since he was arrested for forg out was released by a relative kindly paying th a suspected felon, and while the officer was con ducting him to jail, flung his bowie knife away, as he knew his possession of it made him amena ble to fine. He was sent to the workhouse in de fault of bail, as a dangerous character, and in dicted for carrying a concealed deadly weapon When this case was tried last week, he was brought in and a fine of $50 inflicted, and he was ordered to the workhouse until it was paid. The keeper of the workhouse handcuffed Jack and another prisoner, and started to the Cave. Jack soon slipped the handcuff from his fellow-prisoner, jumped from the wagon with the jail ornament dorning his arm, and made his escape. Yesterday Officers Bligh and Vansant spied him in the vicinity of the Indiana penitentiary, but he ran like a deer at their sight. After a long chase they captured him, and he is now in jail. He said he staid about because he had a friend in jail. Sheppard, it is supposed, had a hand in the recent burglaries here. The Rathway Republican says that when

MISTEPHENS—Complete in one large duodecimo volume, of 500 pages, neatly bound in coth, for one dollar and twenty-five cents; postage 25c.

The great prize story of Mary Derwent was, at the time of its publication in the Ladies' Companion, some sixteen years ago, one of the most popular and widely spread stories ever issued in this country. That story alone served to introduce Mrs. Ann S. Stephens into the first rank of American authors.

The scene of the novel is laid in the valley of Wyoming, the paradise of Pennsylvania, where the most picturesque scenery is joined to the most startling events in American History. On this splendid material for a romance, Mrs. Stephens has exerted the best powers of her mind. For sale by Mrs. Stephens has call.

That they have no pecuniary investment in the said School, the entire property being owned by the Principal; that they have been, since its foundation, constant patrons, charged for the education of their own daughters as other patrons; that for their services as the Curators of the Institution, they receive no remuneration, and consequently are governed in their action in the premises only by this notive:—to establish a school of high excellence in their community to which they can with confidence invite parents and guardinas to send their daughters and wards, assuring them that in all respects the trusts reposed will be faithfully discharged.

The close of the present session enables them to renew these pledges to the public. Long experience, untiring energy, and constant devotion to the business of Female Education, have enabled the Principal to secure excelent assistants, to perfect a judicious discipline, and so to conduct his school in every particular as to deserve public confidence and patronage. We therefore feel it to be a duty as well as a pleasure, to commend the Henry Female College to our fellow-clitzens, and especially those who send their children from home to be educated, and to assure all who seek: safety, comfort and happiness, combined with useful and ornamental education, that the Principal, Rev. S. S. SUMNER, is eminently that the Principal, Rev. S. S. SUMNER, is worthy of the trusts he proposes to receicharge. The next session opens on the first September.

IMPROVED WATSON'S FAMILY SEWING MACHINE!

THIS invention is the only one having for its object the reduction of price and the real utility necessary to a place it in every family in the Union. There is no doubt that this is one of the most useful and valuable inventions ever brought before the public. It is an accompaniment to the work-basket. Instead of, as heretofore, with other machines, a companion to the workshop.

The Watson Machine uses the thread from one ordinary spool without the trouble of rewinding, and is adapted to the sewing of Muslin, Linen, Siik or Woolen Goods. They are strong, durable, and not liable to get out of order; and will do the work of a week in a single day.

Price of the hand Machine, $15; for Machine with Table and Treadle, $25 and $30. For sale at mybd8m

The habeas corpus in the de Riviere case was brought up before the New York Courts on Friday. The bodies of Mrs. Blount and daughter were not produced, and the further hearing of the meantime, decamped for parts unknown. The officers sent to arrest Riviere culpably permitted him to escape.

The Riviere and Blount Case.

In Court, Col. Blount said that the failure was a designed one to enable de Riviere to escape. Mr. Beatty (the sheriff) said he had made diligent efforts to find de Riviere, and had not succeeded in doing so. Col. Blount said that the character of the State of New Jersey was involved in this matter, and he (Mr. Beatty) had intentionally allowed de Riviere to escape, and this he should prove on him. Mr. Beatty stated his official conduct was open to investigation and scrutiny at any time. Mr. Blount exhibited much excitement n his words and actions, and was evidently under the influence of strong pervous agitation. To other gentlemen present he said that no State in the Union, except New Jersey, would there be any difficulty in bringing a man like de Riviere to justice, who had been guilty of so flagrant an atrage upon the domestic circle. He said that de Riviere was a mere adventurer, and had been sentenced to eight years in the galleys in France, and would scruple at no act to secure a merceand would scrape at no act to secure a merce-nary end. A gentleman had said to de Riviere that he was doing wrong in pursuing this matter, and de Riviere replied that Miss Blount had $150,000, and he was not going to give that up without a struggle without a struggle.

A gentleman suggested to Col. Blount that the daughter was as much at fault as de Riviere. Col. Blount said that the daughter was under the influence of his wife, who for several years had been of unsecued wind. been of unsound mind.

Mr. Rarey's Success. A letter from Mr. Rarey, from Liverpool under date of April 23d, and written to his nephew

"I have just had a very hard day, and between the hurrals, the rush of people, the lecture, the breaking of those very bad horses, (one so as to be shod,) the excitement, and the perfect volley of all manner of questions, I feel very much like leaning back in my chair and taking a quie They tried to bring some horses to-day to de

Judge Hughes, of Indiana, made a speech to his constituents the other day, in which he said: I challenged Harris, not because I wished t ight, but to bring on an honorable settlement-ind I should have done the same in Indiana. Congress has its rules and customs. And I say ou that a man who takes a public, unprovoked insult, without resenting it as a man of honor might as well go home. He has influence no long-er. This is made painfully evident when he rises to make a motion or speech, or discharge any Congressional duty. I found this state of things there, and did not create it. Harris called me a liar and I referred the matter to a friend who met with a friend of Mr. Harris talked over the matter and agreed on a basis of settlement which was accepted. The code of honor is not such a bad thing after all. These gentlemen talked the matter over and came to a No muskets at ten paces ever wer mentioned, for it never came to that pass. You, of course, my friends, cannot be aware of the intense anxiety I felt while this question was in the ands of our friends. I had sent my family away o Baltimore that they might know nothing of it ill after the affair was settled. I could attend to o public business while the prospect of a duel ras before me. But, gentlemen, I will never sit that House, a disgraced man. Do you wish to pe represented by a man whom even the boys in the streets would his as dishonored? In Washing on, a man must adopt this course to protect him self from insult and disgrace.

Amalgamation Marriages in Boston.—The Bos ton matrimonial register shows that during the last year there have been no less than sixty amalgamation marriages; and singular to say, they were all of white women with black or colored men; in no instance has a white man been regis tered as having taken to wife a colored woman.— The white ladies of Boston and thereal ingular tastes, certainly they seem to relish black isses, from all accounts, with peculiar gusto, and black or colored husbands are becoming a highly popular institution among them. Can anythin prove more conclusively the growing degenera-tion in point of morality and decency, of pious, proper New England, as this horrible fanaticism which strikes at the root of everything like purity, and tends to undermine the divine laws nature? When woman, the safeguard of virtue and purity, stoops thus to degrade herself, per-vert the womanhood within her, the degradation of man, as a necessary consequence must follow.

eases, and all affections connected with or predisposing to Consumption.

Dr. Flower wishes it distinctly understood that, although he considers Consumption a curable disease, and treats it as such, he does not pretend to cure those who have neither lungs nor constitution left. He would also add that he is accustomed to tell those applying their real situation, and none need apply who are unwilling to learn the truth. A curative treatment will of course only be undertaken in cases where there seems some chance of remedy. Where there is none, the treatment must be merely palliative.

The treatment employed is the breathing of Medicated Vapors into the Lungs, thus producing an action at the very seat of the disease, combined with constitutional remedies, which are sufe, prompt, and effective. As Dr. F. is stay is limited, all who intend to consult him should do so at once. For the last six years Dr. F. has devoted his entire time to the treatment of the above diseases.

je22 dtf WE VERILY BELIEVE Nine-tenths of the intelligence and taste of Louisville have no idea what beautiful Pictures we are now making. No idea, because we have not been making them long, and because we so often hear such exclamations as "Is it possible?" from those who see them for the first time. Now we don't like to boast-modesty has always been a feature at HARRIS' Gallery-but we just say call and see them. HARRIS & HALL, Main st., my81 between Third and Fourth. WHAT AN OFFER The manufacturer of the "King of Oils" says: "A good torse is offered for a live bed bug after having the King and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and ealth to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases. This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skilful female physicians in New England, and has been used with never-falling success in millions of cases.

We believe it the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in Children, whether it arises from teething or any other cause. If life and health can be estimated by dollars and cents, it is worth its weight in gold.

Millions of bottles are sold every year in the United States. It is an old and well-tried remedy. PRICE ONLY TWENTY-FIVE CENTS A BOTTLE.

SOUTHERNER, Triplett, Memphis.

SUPERIOR, Dittman, Cincinnati.
HIGHFLYER, Wright, St. Louis;
CHATTANOOGA, Harmonson, Tennessee river. THE RIVER was slowly rising last evening, with four feet eight inches water in the canal by the mark, which would enable boats drawing 5½ feet water to work through without trouble. On the falls there were 32 inches water, a rise of two inches in the previous 24 hours. The weather, though clear continues pleasant though clear, continues pleasant.

though clear, continues pleasant.

The mail boat yesterday, the Telegraph, reports a rise in the river at Cincinnati of about 10 inches, caused by the rains in the vicinity. We have not had much rain here, though we hear of heavy rains in the vicinity of Lexington, also along the Ohio river, some 90 miles below here.

THE ACCIDENT TO THE ANTELOPE -- Boat Scuttled and Sunk-Cargo on Shore-Heavy Insurance.—
By a special dispatch last evening from Jas. E. Sage, the clerk, we learn that the Antelope, Capt. Brown, after being on fire thirty-six hours in the hold, was finally scuttled and sunk. The dispatch was forwarded from Shawneetown, via Evansville, dated yesterday, the 13th, and it states that the boot reaches. that the boat was ran near to shore, and sunk in twelve feet water the night previous.

We have already stated that the boat caught fire in the hold, with fears that she would bury up, but it appears that the fire could not be sub-dued, and she was scuttled. The Antelope left here last Wednesday with considerable freight, including a large consignment of bagging and rope, as well as provisions, hay and whisky. She lies at Cincinnati Towhead, a short distance below Caseyville, but had careened over considerably, and fears are entertained that she will be a total loss. The hull was insured in this city for $20,000, equally divided with Atwood's and Muir's agencies, and, we believe, an additional $5,000 in New Albany. Her freight list is insured in this city for over $20,000, the Washington alone having risks for $14,000, and we hear that heavy risks were taken on cargo at New Albany. The greater portion of the freight, however, will be saved without loss. Cart Hamilton, grount of the present of the p without loss. Capt. Hamilton, agent of the un-derwriters, starts to the boat to-day on the High-fiyer. As the river is low and falling, we think the boat, at least the upper works, cabin furniture and machinery can be saved. The Chancellor, a summer packet, the lightest in the fleet, having been detained, takes her departure to New Orleans this evening at 4 o'clock, from Portland. She is in charge of Captain Stewart, assisted by Mr. Foster, in the clerk's The Chancellor takes the place of the Pacific which has laid up. By a special dispatch from Evansville, we earn that the Southerner, from Memphis, passed rearr that the Southerner, from Memphis, passed that point last evening, and would arrive at 11 o'clock to-day. She had been detained by fogs. The Southerner is the regular mail and passenger packet for Memphis this evening. She starts at 4 o'clock, from Portland, in charge of the gallant Triplett, assisted in the office by Capt. Archer, both popular and competent officers. The Southerner stops at all points on the Ohio, making 32 mail landings, including Mound City, the present terminus of the Illinois Central Rail-The Fanny Bullitt, from New Orleans, was at Memphis Monday. She is due Thursday, and returns to New Orleans Friday. PACIFIC LAID U.P.—The splendid passenger packet Pacific has been laid up for the season, and was hauled up to upper Portland last evening to await the opening of the fall campaign. The Pacific came out early in December, and has made a very successful and profitable season, winning at the same time. winning at the same time a high name as a confortable, safe and swift passenger packet.

HIGHFLYER FOR St. Louis. - The Highflyer, charge of the indomitable Capt. Tom Wright who is always right, arrived from St. Louis last evening with a good trip. She returns to St. Louis at noon to-day, her usual hour, starting from Portland, and providing choice fare and accommodations for travelers. The clerk, Sam B. Halliday, is one of the best, most efficient and attentive on the river and a favorite with tentive on the river, and a favorite with eve RAILROAD IRON AT COLUMBUS .- It will be se by the following extract of a Columbus, Ky., let-ter, that their railroad is going ahead: The Scotland, Captain Marshall, is now lying here, putting off twenty-five hundred bars of railroad, or five miles. Captain Miller, of the R. J. Lackland, has the contract for carrying 6,000 bars from New Orleans to this place, and nothing is now wanting to complete the great link which will unite the "Father of Waters" with the Gulf of Mexico. The Cincinnati Gazette of yesterday, states that the river at that point had risen 11 inches, and was still rising. The Minerva, Pomeroy and Lacrosse were aground at Blennerhassett. The following is from the Commercial of yesterday: The Messenger has withdrawn from the Parkersburg trade, the Fairy Queen taking her place. The Messenger will repair, and take the place of the Boston in the Big Sandy trade during the summer.

The Lightfoot came in from the Kanawha with 800 bbls salt. On Saturday night, the tow-boat Condor No. 8, came in collision with the Lightfoot. , came in collision with the Lightfoot, two miles he hyandotte, and came very near running over and sink-ing the latter. A portion of the Lightfoot's starboard oiler deck guard, and a hog chain were cut away. DIE VERNON SOLD .- Capt. Sheble arrived from St. Louis yerterday with the Die Vernon, which has been sold to V. B. Horton for $4,000, for the Cincinnati and Parkersburg trade.

The Die Vernon is some 250 feet in length, and of course unable to come through the canal. She was ouce the famous packet in the Keokuk trade. The light Superior is the mail and passenger acket for Cincinnati and the East to-day. She eaves from the foot of Third street, at 12, M., and clerk, Charley Topping, is always correct

The Telegraph yesterday had a large amount of freight, including the freight of the Messenger and J. B. Ford. The John Gault has been docked, and i w undergoing re-painting and re-fitting at the lower wharf preparatory for the low water cam-paign. She is the lightest passenger packet now in the Louisville trade, and the neatest. Among the boats laid up at the lower wharf repairing are the Tempest, R. M. Pattor No. 2, Time, Wm. Knox and John Gault.

ON MANHOOD, AND ITS PREMATURE DECLINE.—Just published, gratis, the 20th Thousand:

A few Words on the Rational Treatment, without Medicine, of Spermatorrhea or Local Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, Genital and Nervous Debility, Impotency, and Impediments to Marriage generally, by

B. DE LANEY, M. D.

The important fact that the many alarming complaints, originating in the imprudence and solitude of youth, may be easily removed without Madicine, is in this small tract, clearly demonstrated; and the entirely new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure HIMSELF perfectly and at the least possible cost, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis and post free in a sealed envelope, by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. B. DE LANEY, SS East 31st street, New York City. ap29 d&wtf.
